

“Would you like your teenagers to live happily ever after with their one true love?”

The True Love Thing to Do 2 1/2 Hour Seminar ...

... will show your teenagers (or teenagers in your church, or other teenagers that you know) how they can build a marriage of true love. It explains why it's better to wait until marriage to have sexual relations - not just because of pregnancy or STDs but because of the beauty and value of love.

The True Love Thing to Do Seminar is a “Marriage Preparation, Abstinence & Character Education Seminar” that describes a new way of thinking, feeling and acting; and most of all a new way of loving. It introduces a new paradigm for life in the 21st century - the “Age of Illumination”.

Teenagers will Discover:

- The connection between sex and unselfish love
- The invisible radar of heart that all humans beings are born with
- The best way to protect yourself from unwelcome sexual advances
- How to “educate yourself” to become a person of true love
- How to build a marriage of true love that will last forever

“I thought it was an awesome, awesome curriculum. It was a good message, especially for teens like me, who don't know how important purity is. It should be spread throughout the nation.”

Ms. Whitney Edwards, age 15, High School Student

“... will help young people understand that true love, as defined by respect and lifelong commitment, is the key to long-term sexual and emotional fulfillment.”
Shepard Smith ~ Institute for Youth Development

Suitable for Family Home Seminars (can be conducted by parents at home) or Larger Group Seminars

The curriculum is written by Peter Falkenberg Brown, and published by his company, The World Community Network under the World Community Press imprint. The curriculum is written for teenagers from 12 or 13 to 19 and adults in their 20s. The seminars follow the “Reading / Discussion” format, and are very easy to host. Brown is available for a fee to host the seminars - but they're so easy to do that most groups will be able to select an adult moderator from their own staff (the teenagers do all the seminar staffing except for the moderator).
